

Short Resumé

Pedro Hernán Henríquez Guajardo, Public Administrator, with a Degree in International Economic Relations. Graduate studies in Public Administration, International Relations and Political Science at Universities of Chile, Princeton and Pittsburgh. Magister © International Studies at Universidad de Chile.

In Chile, he was most recently Dean of the School of Political Science and Public Administration at Universidad Central de Chile. He has also held positions as Head of the Planning and Budget Bureau and Deputy-UnderSecretary at the Ministry of Education during two periods (1990 - 1994 and 2003-2006); Chief of Planning and Studies of the National Council for Culture and Arts; Director and Professor at the School of Government and Public Management at Universidad de Chile; Chief of Planning for the National Service of Senior Citizens and Counselor for the Directorate of the Budget, Ministry of Finance. Furthermore, Professor and Director of thesis at Universidad de Chile, Santiago de Chile, Central de Chile and Universidad de Los Andes (Colombia).

In the international scenario, he has held posts at International Organizations such as Executive Secretary for Convenio Andres Bello 1994-2001 (CAB-Bogotá), Director of the Organization of Ibero American States for Chile 2006-2008 (OEI-Santiago) and Consultant with the Interamerican Development Bank for MERCOSUR Educativo as well as for OREALC/UNESCO.

Santiago, January 2011.-